

Please do not change Wisconsin's No Call functions from what they are today. The companies still have Spam as an option for sending purchase info to a large population of potential buyers via the internet.